

Committee	Special Political and Decolonization Committee
Issue concerning	Supporting post-conflict stabilization and state consolidation efforts in the Syrian Arab Republic
Main	Republic of Iraq
Co-submitters:	State of Qatar, Japan, Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan
Signatories:	Federal Republic of Germany, United Arab Emirates, Italian Republic, State of Israel, Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Kingdom of the Netherlands, French Republic, Kingdom of Sweden, United States of America

Special Political and Decolonization (GA4) Committee,

Recalling its resolutions 2254 (2015), 2118 (2013), 2139 (2014), 2165 (2014), and subsequent relevant resolutions and presidential statements on the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic,

Reaffirming its strong commitment to the sovereignty, independence, unity, and territorial integrity of the Syrian Arab Republic,

Deeply concerned at the continued instability and outbreaks of violence in parts of Syria, including sectarian and intercommunal violence, and their impact on civilians,

Recognizing the urgent need to stabilize the security, humanitarian, and socioeconomic situation throughout Syria to prevent further deterioration and regional spillover,

Acknowledging the significant humanitarian needs of the Syrian people, including internally displaced persons and refugees, and the importance of safe, voluntary, and dignified returns,

Emphasizing the primary responsibility of Syrian authorities to protect all civilians without discrimination and to ensure accountability for crimes committed against them;

1. Calls for the immediate establishment of a Global Asset Reinvestment Fund (GARF) to reinvest the frozen capital from the Assad Family or Syrian State Assets and collect funds from all nations willing to contribute to the spread of humanitarian aid and to the economic stability of the nation, by:

- a. letting all nations voluntarily contribute,
- b. managing oversight by UN-authorized personnel without infringing on national sovereignty to ensure the proper spread of these resources to the state,
- c. ensuring that after solving the current issues addressed in this resolution, if there are any resources left in the fund, there will be a commission meeting to discuss what to allocate them towards;

2. Calls for the establishment of the Arab Fund for Syrian Renewal (AFSR), to be headquartered in Abu Dhabi, as a regionally-led, independently governed financial institution dedicated to the reconstruction and economic stabilization of Syria:

- a. decides that the AFSR shall be capitalized at an initial target of USD 50 billion, structured through:
 - i. voluntary contributions from Arab Member States,
 - ii. strategic capital allocations from the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority,
 - iii. optional co-financing mechanisms involving regional development institutions and private-sector partners,
- b. establishes that the governance structure of the AFSR, appointed for fixed, renewable terms to ensure continuity and accountability, shall be strictly technocratic and independent, containing a:
 - i. Board of Governors composed of financial experts, nominated by contributing institutions,
 - ii. selected based on professional expertise in finance, development, and infrastructure,
- c. decision-making procedures shall include:
 - i. qualified majority voting for large-scale funding allocations,
 - ii. mandatory independent financial and technical review prior to project approval exceeding a defined threshold,
 - iii. explicit exclusion of current political office holders from executive decision-making roles,
- d. designates that AFSR funding shall be allocated according to clearly defined sectoral priorities, such as:

- i. infrastructure reconstruction,
 - ii. rehabilitation of transport systems, including roads and logistics corridors,
 - iii. restoration of water and sanitation infrastructure,
- e. telecommunications development, by:
 - i. expanding the broadband and digital connectivity,
 - ii. establishing a secure and modern communication networks,
- f. gaining energy independence, through:
 - i. rehabilitation of national energy grids,
 - ii. investment in renewable energy projects, including solar and wind capacity,
- g. mandates the implementation of strict financial oversight mechanisms within the AFSR, that have:
 - i. annual independent audits conducted by internationally recognized auditing bodies,
 - ii. a publication of transparent financial reports, including detailed breakdowns of project funding allocations,
 - iii. an encouraged coordination between the AFSR and relevant international and regional actors,
- h. technical cooperation with the United Nations and its agencies, including the United Nations Development Programme;

3. Proposes the establishment of a Syrian-led political settlement that ensures sovereignty and territorial unity by:

- a. advocating for constitutional guarantees of unity,
- b. organizing free and fair elections to legitimize leadership positions,
- c. safeguarding minority rights and the guarantee of equal citizenship under the law;

4. Calls upon Member States to rapidly contribute with equipment and technical capabilities, prioritizing:

- a. border surveillance technologies and logistics,
- b. medical and engineering support teams,
- c. training assistance for local security personnel;

5. Invites members of the state to strengthen national export management laws and controls, for the prevention of arms and drugs smuggled illegally to different illicit groups, by:

- a. enhancing border security, meaning:
 - i. implementing advanced scanning and detection technologies, such as obligatory X-ray inspection systems at any entry and exit point,
 - ii. inspecting tourists and shipments,
- b. ensuring that the measures are implemented in a non-discriminatory way and do not restrict the legitimate transport of arms;

6. Proposes the creation of the Secure Energy Corridor to facilitate the safe construction of Liquefied Natural Gas terminals and the rehabilitation of the Arab Gas Pipeline. Mandating the GARF to prioritize funding for Qatari-led initiatives to modernize the Syrian National grid;

7. Recommends the establishment of the Arab and Foreign Aid Conference (AFAC), which will take place annually, tackling the safety and stabilization of the Syrian Arab Republic's borders, by;

- a. taking place in Doha, Amman, and Baghdad, varying the order of them,
- b. arab countries and the states that want to fund and participate in reconstructing Syria being invited to:
 - i. bring social aid to the endangered parts of the population,
 - ii. be the main priority to secure severely damaged cities and reconstruct infrastructure,
- c. discussing topics regarding the fluidization of the number of refugees and repatriating them,
- d. connecting the main cities of the Syrian Arab Republic, such as Damascus and Aleppo,
- e. using the new infrastructure for transporting aid to severely affected populations;

8. Calls upon countries that do not engage in direct military intervention, but possess sufficient financial resources, to allocate funding toward combating extremist groups in affected regions, by:

- a. investing in counter-narratives, to:
 - i. challenge extremist ideologies online and offline by promoting moderate voices and counter-messaging,
 - ii. provide a platform to share the lived experiences of individuals or groups whose stories are often silenced or misrepresented,
 - iii. help audiences interpret events in a new way, providing a "habitable plot" that inoculates them against extremist messages before those have the chance to take root,
- b. investing in security and intelligence to find new methods of combating the aforementioned type of crimes;

9. Hopes for the protection of civilians through:

- a. UN-protected IDP sites,
- b. expanded gender-based violence (GBV) response teams,
- c. medical and psychosocial services in coordination with WHO, UNICEF, and NGOs;

10. Endorses the integration of the Syrian Democratic Forces (SDF), utilizing the ceasefire agreement of 2026 mediated by Doha as a blueprint, while not infringing on the sovereignty of neighboring states;

11. Supports an international organization, RRS (The Rights of Refugees from Syria), where all the signatory states will debate the safeguarding of the endangered populations' lives, by:

- a. Creating an international legislation that defends human rights, ensuring that:
 - i. every signatory country will participate in the debates regarding the feasibility of the measures,
 - ii. each state will establish the decisions in terms of how it will agree on the measures,
- b. forming national organizations where the acceptance of refugees is promoted through educational programmes, for both children and adults, to accommodate the received refugees;

12. Proposes a Forum for Arms Transport in the Middle East, in an effort to stop the supply of weapons to different factions, on the following terms:

- a. countries will be required to notify fellow members of arms transport in the Middle East, with a focus on Syria and the surrounding countries,
- b. members must specify the reason for transport,
- c. the forum will have a representative in every transport of arms to ensure compliance with the stated norms and motives,
- d. the UN will administer this forum through authorized personnel,
- e. the forum will not infringe state sovereignty, but merely provide reassurance to the other states;

13. Encourages further collaboration with UNHCR to establish an international program that deals with the inflow of Syrian refugees by:

- a. strengthening regional cooperation to optimize the use of resources,
- b. balancing each neighbour country's involvement;

14. Proposes the investment into prison, jail facilities and the police force in Syria, for:

- a. the expansion of these facilities to reduce the problem of overcrowding,
- b. more supplies, such as weapons for police forces and defense purposes;

15. Calls for enhanced international cooperation to prevent the renewal of extremist groups in Syria by:

- a. strengthening intelligence sharing between member states,
- b. supporting counter-terrorism operations in accordance with international law;

16. Endorses the Central Bank of Syria in its efforts to regain international investors and trust, by:

- a. reclaiming the frozen assets acquired by the Assad regime, up to its fall,
- b. considering trading a part of its SDRs (Special Drawing Rights) for bonds, with the help of the IMF,
- c. discussing debt management with the international community, through the newly reinstated ISSG talks;

17. Affirms the need to strengthen economic and social resilience in vulnerable and conflict-affected areas of the Syrian Arab Republic as a non-military counter-extremism measure aimed at reducing recruitment by extremist groups such as the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL), through:

- a. the expansion of youth employment and vocational training programs designed to improve access to sustainable livelihoods and economic opportunity,
- b. the improvement of equitable access to education, including primary, secondary, and technical education, with a focus on displaced and at-risk populations,
- c. the support and capacity-building of local governance structures to enhance service delivery, accountability, and community trust in state and civic institutions;

18. Proposes the limitation of several seats in the People's Assembly of Syria for the significant ethnic minorities of the country, so they shall be represented accordingly by:

- a. reserving some parliamentary seats for ethnic minorities proportional to their population in the country, for the following:
 - i. kurkish population,
 - ii. druze population,
 - iii. alawite population,
- b. specified ethnicities that shall mandatorily occupy the number of seats. A representative of a specified ethnicity is defined as follows:
 - i. is biologically a member of the specified ethnicity,
 - ii. has a history of any length of supporting the specified ethnicity politically,
 - iii. takes an oath to represent the ethnicities' interests and needs throughout his mandate,
- c. calculating the number of reserved seats before each parliamentary election proportionally, as mentioned above;

19. Proclaims the need for a renewal of the International Syria Support Group's (ISSG) efforts by:

- a. designating member states of the original ISSG and three-yearly rotating states from the Arab League, with the responsibility of guiding the Syrian-led reconciliation talks, through:
 - i. offering Transitional Justice advice,
 - ii. consulting with UN experts on the Syrian situation,
- b. coordinating with the UN Commission of Inquiry on Syria,
- c. approving a spokesperson to the ISSG, with the approval of the Syrian government;

20. Seeks the establishment of a United Nations Facilitation and Advisory Framework for Syria (UNFAFS), consistent with Security Council Resolution 2254, tasked with:

- a. assisting with diverse requests among Syrian political actors,

- b. offering technical expertise without supervisory authority apart from the Syrian government itself,
- c. coordinating humanitarian dialogue between Syrian institutions and Member States,
- d. explicitly recognizing that executive, constitutional, and transitional governance shall remain under Syrian sovereign authority;

21. Calls for the immediate interruption of the Israeli invasion of Syria and the creation of peace talks, supervised by the UN to guarantee a lasting and stable peace;

22. Calls upon Member States to contribute with technical support by:

- a. strengthening personnel along the shared borders with the Syrian Arab Republic, during the state consolidation process,
- b. sharing border checkpoint administration along the borders of Syria, excluding the unique Purple Line, until the Syrian Arab Republic can safely administrate them fully,
- c. offering expertise on combating FTFs;

23. Supports phasing out all sanctions imposed on the Syrian Arab Republic during the Assad regime, as they are no longer relevant and are only hindering the redevelopment of the Syrian economy;

24. Affirms to remain actively seized of the matter.